Here you can find the menu of Falcon Club Egremont in Copeland. At the moment, there are 19 courses and drinks on the card. Nestled in a charming locale, this restaurant offers a mixed bag of dining experiences. While the Sunday carvery is a highlight for some, featuring generous portions and a lovely atmosphere, concerns about food quality—particularly the toughness of the beef and occasional soggy vegetables—persist. Starters, like the brie and camembert, receive praise, contrasting with the disappointment over certain main dishes. Service can be inconsistent, with organizational issues and hygiene concerns noted. Despite the drawbacks, some patrons commend the attentive staff and value for money, suggesting that with a few improvements, this restaurant could truly shine.
