The restaurant from London offers 19 different menus and drinks on the card at an average price of £11. The restaurant offers a beautiful ambience with good food that is visually appealing. While there were some issues with the dryness of the pork dish, overall the menu is appealing and the service is attentive and friendly.

Customers found the food to be delicious, but some noted that it could have been warmer. The staff was courteous and welcoming, making diners feel at home. While some felt that the menu could offer more variety, others enjoyed the element of surprise with each visit. The quality of the food was praised, but some guests felt rushed by the kitchen and service. Although there were some minor issues, most patrons recommend visiting this restaurant for a pleasant dining experience.
