Here you can find the menu of Bradley's Bakery in Tameside. At the moment, there are 20 courses and drinks on the menu. Despite being known for their pork pies, Bradley's received mixed reviews. Some customers expressed disappointment with the quality and taste of their pies, while others praised them as the best they've ever had. The change in ownership to Martins seemed to have affected the overall experience, with some feeling that the bakery had lost its charm and character. However, other customers enjoyed the variety and quality of cakes and pastries available, and highlighted the excellent service received. Overall, opinions on Bradley's bakery were divided, with some urging people to try it out and others vowing to never return.
