This restaurant has received mixed reviews, with many customers complaining about long wait times, poor service, and canceled orders. However, some customers have praised the quality of the food, especially the grilled chicken and sharing platters. The prices are reasonable, and the staff are friendly and polite. The cleanliness of the restaurant has also been highlighted as a positive aspect. Overall, while there have been some negative experiences, there are also customers who highly recommend the restaurant for its delicious food and good value.
