The restaurant faced challenges in managing orders and quality of food, with a bitter cheese scone and slow service noted. Complaints surfaced about unwelcoming staff and unimpressive service, contrasting with the neighboring butcher's friendly demeanor. The tea room was criticized for its lack of coziness and below-average cream tea. Despite some flaws, the cafe received praise for its hearty food offerings. A farm shop on site offered a variety of fresh produce and the Orchard Tea Room recommended for its refreshing ciders and charming staff. Inconsistent service and lack of attention to detail detracted from the overall dining experience.
