Perrotts Garden Bistro in Cork offers decently priced meals in a beautiful setting with attentive service. However, some diners were disappointed with bland, tasteless food and overcooked dishes. On the other hand, a birthday celebration was a hit with delicious food, excellent service, and a promising new French waitress. Overall, if you're looking for a nice atmosphere and good service, Perrotts Garden Bistro may be worth a visit, but be cautious of potential inconsistencies in the dining experience.
