On this website, you can find the complete menu of Gate Of India from Poole. Currently, there are 20 menus and drinks available. Gate of India has been a staple for curries in the area for almost two decades. While some recent experiences have been hit or miss, overall reviews indicate a good value for money, especially with their BYOB policy. While some dishes have been inconsistent in flavor and quality, the friendly service and efficient staff make up for it. The lack of alcohol on the menu is offset by the option to bring your own, adding to the affordability of the overall dining experience. With a wide variety of dishes, cozy ambience, and attentive service, Gate of India is definitely worth a visit in Bournemouth.
