On this site, you can find the complete menu of The George from Chichester. Currently, there are 20 courses and drinks available. The George has been a public house for over 170 years, nestled into the rolling hills of the Sussex South Downs National Park. Just off the beaten track in the small village of Eartham, it provides a comfortable and welcoming place to visit whatever the season. With three open fires for cooler evenings and a pretty garden for sunny days, The George offers a traditional English pub experience. Enjoy a seasonal menu with locally sourced ingredients, including traditional roasts for Sunday Lunch. Whether you're looking for a full meal or a light bite, your food is freshly prepared to order. The George also boasts a wide selection of English, Commonwealth New World wines, English Mead, soft drinks, Real Ales from local and national breweries, English Lagers, Ciders, and bottled Beers. Owned by Anita James, The George promises a warm welcome to all guests.
