A comprehensive menu of Black Bull from Dumfries Galloway covering all 18 meals and drinks can be found here on the menu. The Black Bull in Moffat is known as one of the oldest hostelry in Scotland, dating back to 1568. Steeped in history, it was once the headquarters of the Earl of Dundee and his company of Dragoons, called 'Bloody Cleavers'. Later it became a favorite haunt of Robert Burns. Today, after a 500k refurbishment, the Black Bull is a luxurious 15 bedroom boutique hotel with modern facilities while retaining its natural charm. The atmospheric bar offers a selection of cask and craft ales, along with highland and lowland malts. The dining experience at the Black Bull is exceptional, with a menu featuring the best traditional puddings and pies, accompanied by a variety of flavored mash potatoes, including colcannon and horseradish mash. Daily specials are also available.
