New Chinese takeaway offers hit-and-miss dishes, with some lacking flavor and quality, while others impress with deliciousness and generous portions. Some disappointments include cold, dry ribs and underwhelming Szechuan pork. However, standout items like salt and chilli chicken and Chinese style pork shine. Customers report mixed experiences with delivery times and service, but the overall consensus leans towards returning for the scrumptious food and friendly staff. Despite some inconsistencies, this new restaurant seems to be winning over customers in Eastbourne with its fresh ingredients and great portions. Worth a try for those seeking a reliable Chinese takeaway option.
