The Beano Café offers a varied breakfast experience that leaves guests with mixed feelings. While some patrons praise the affordable prices and quick service, others express disappointment over subpar food quality and cramped seating. Many noted that the ingredients felt cheap, leading to unsatisfying meals that were often left untouched. However, some diners enjoy the generous portions and friendly staff, recommending specific items like the all-day breakfast and black pudding. Ultimately, the café stands out for its reasonable prices, yet the inconsistency in food quality may deter repeat visits.
