Here you can find the menu of Dragon Court in South Derbyshire. At the moment, there are 16 courses and drinks on the card. Dragon Court, a popular local takeaway, garners mixed reviews. While many loyal customers praise its friendly service, quick preparation, and delicious dishes like chicken satay, recent experiences highlight significant declines in quality and service. Complaints include inconsistent food preparations, unexpected charges, and poor customer relations involving staff treatment. Some diners appreciate the option for gluten-free meals, showcasing a commitment to accommodating dietary needs. However, the restaurant faces scrutiny over management practices and a perceived drop in standards. Despite loyal patrons celebrating a decade of enjoyment, others express disappointment, signaling a need for improvement to reclaim its former reputation.
