Ma's Kitchen in Limerick is a hidden gem offering value for money and very tasty Chinese takeaway food during the pandemic. However, their breakfasts are the standout feature with unreal portions and quality dishes. Priced at around 10 euro for a full Irish breakfast, the plate is filled to the brim and includes delicious eggs and pancakes. The owner, Jimmy, ensures COVID restrictions are followed, and the staff are friendly and accommodating. The restaurant is a must-visit for breakfast or late-night delivery, with excellent food quality and service. Ma's Kitchen truly stands out as a top-notch dining destination in Limerick.
