On this site, you can find the complete menu of Queens Head from Tamworth. Currently, there are 22 meals and drinks up for grabs. The Queens Head is a family-friendly pub located in the heart of Wilnecote, standing on the old A5 Watling Street. Recently refurbished and extended, this vibrant and characterful pub retains many original features dating back around 600 years. With ties to the notorious highwayman Dick Turpin, visitors can explore Turpin's lookout post in the corner of Dick's Room. The pub offers an extended play area, improved Beer Garden, and function room hire for various events. Proud to be a dog-friendly establishment, the Queens Head provides treats and plenty of water bowls for thirsty pets. Additionally, the pub supports several local charities with regular donations.
