At just 16 years old, Chef Zhang embarked on his culinary journey at the renowned Hibiscus Restaurant in Chengdu. His remarkable talent and dedication led him to head chef positions in some of the finest establishments in Beijing and Shanghai before he brought his expertise to London. In 2005, he took on the exciting challenge of crafting a vibrant Sichuanese menu at BarShu Restaurant, quickly becoming renowned for his delectable dishes that capture the delicate and indulgent essence of Sichuan cuisine. Chef Zhang's passion for culinary excellence was further recognized in 2008 when he won the Gold title at the 5th International Competition of Eat East Food in Beijing. This acclaim opened doors, allowing him to represent the UK at the prestigious Worlds of Flavour event in California, where he showcased the pinnacle of Sichuan cooking. His culinary prowess also led to a collaboration with Fuchsia Dunlop on her acclaimed book, 'Every Grain of Rice: Simple Chinese Home Cooking,' published in 2012. Later, Chef Zhang took his talents to HuTong in The Shard, but now he has chosen to share his rich heritage and culinary artistry at Tian Fu, Taste of Sichuan. Here, guests are invited to indulge in an authentic menu that reflects the flavors and traditions reminiscent of his grandfather's cooking. Join us at Tian Fu, where Chef Zhang's passion and expertise come together to create an unforgettable dining experience.
