Een uitgebreide menukaart van Les Coudes Sur La Table uit Embourg met alle 25 gerechten en drankjes vind je hier op de kaart. On the heights of the vibrant city, this cozy eatery, known as the "table d'amis" by the team that lovingly tends to it, does not lack in politeness - if by that we mean the ultimate courtesy of always making the guest comfortable. Without bells, tablecloths, or pompous manners, a vibrant and generous market cuisine is served here, relaxed and casual. It's Comfort Food, as they say across the Channel. There is no set menu, just a chalkboard that changes from week to week, depending on the season and the mood of the owners. No strict codes, monotonous style, or unbreakable boundaries here: scallops pair with blood sausage, there's a touch of Italy blending with the Scheldt River, the pot-au-feu aromas mix with souk scents, and quinoa hasn't declared war on red meat. One constant: everything is homemade. Period. If you dare to place your elbow on the table, you must know how to do it properly. Just like stress-free vines produce the best, all of the wines in the cellar come from organic agriculture at a minimum. What's more, the laid-back atmosphere at this charming spot is complemented by the delightfully vintage decor designed by Studio Hercule. And in the soundtrack that accompanies your meal, sometimes comforting, sometimes daring, never dull. A word banned on this side of the food planet.
