Diners rave about the flavors, with standout dishes like the sham savera veg kebab winning hearts. While the all-you-can-eat option delights with ample choices, service inconsistencies can detract from the experience, ranging from inattentive waitstaff to long wait times. Despite some reports of food quality issues, many regulars appreciate the comforting ambiance and reasonable prices. Overall, Clove is a worthy destination for those craving authentic Indian flavors, although timing and service reliability may vary depending on the day.
