The restaurant at Tracy Park Hotel offers a diverse and delicious menu, with well-prepared dishes presented nicely. Some reviewers noted limited options on certain days, chilly ambiance without a fire, and slightly high prices. Service varied - from poor with unused cutlery to friendly and well-paced. Meals were particularly stand out, with tender beef and impressive desserts. Overall, many reviewers enjoyed their dining experience, with some noting minor faults like soggy bread or slow service. The character of the historic building added to the cozy atmosphere. Reasonable prices and quality dishes make Masons a worthwhile dining choice.
