On this homepage, you will find the complete menu of Mess Cafe from Hackney. Currently, there are 30 menus and drinks available. Located in the bustling heart of Hackney, this diner offers a casual atmosphere that blends European charm with American diner flair. While its airy interior provides a pleasant backdrop, reviews suggest that the food and service might not always meet expectations. Many diners have praised the generous portions, especially the veggie options like the portobello burger and scrambled eggs, but some find the overall meal quality lacking. Although the staff is friendly, service can be slow. For those seeking an average meal or a rejuvenating breakfast, this cafe remains a contender, though better options may exist nearby.
