Customers praised the cleanliness and good service at Sharky's. While the portion sizes and presentation were enjoyable, some felt the chips were underdone. A beautifully battered hake left something to be desired in terms of taste for others. Despite some service mishaps, such as forgotten orders, the fish dishes were a highlight. The homemade chips and flavorful onion rings were standouts. Overall, Sharky's offers reasonably priced meals in a clean, bright setting with friendly staff. The lovely seaside experience and delicious food make it a recommended stop, even if some minor improvements could be made.
