This local café presents a stark contrast in dining experiences. While some diners rave about the affordable, freshly made meals and friendly service, others express disappointment in low-quality food and unwelcoming staff. Complaints about poorly prepared dishes and cleanliness issues, such as dirty restroom facilities, detract from the overall enjoyment. Nonetheless, many appreciate the diverse menu featuring comforting soups and sandwiches, with particular praise for the club sandwich and French toast. Overall, this establishment is a mixed bag, offering delightful moments for some, while leaving others reluctant to return.
