The place from Carnforth offers 39 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average £8. The Canal Turn pub, originally built as the canal warden's house, offers a charming and picturesque setting on the Lancashire/southern Lakeland border. Recently refurbished in January 2016, it features a brand new sun lounge with floor to ceiling sliding doors for summer, and two log fires for a cosy winter vibe. It is the only hostelry north of Lancaster with a full aspect and picket-fenced terrace alongside the canal, providing a warm and welcoming atmosphere year-round.
