Cafe Fish offers a mixed dining experience with high highs and low lows. The seafood platter was delightful, but other dishes fell short of expectations. While the Cullen skink was tasty, the Fresh Sole was disappointing. The lack of sugar-free drink options was a drawback for some patrons. However, the restaurant's dedication to fresh fish and excellent service was commendable, resulting in repeat visits from some diners. Despite some service mishaps and inconsistencies in the food quality, Cafe Fish remains a popular dining spot in Tobermory.
