Here you will find the menu of Old Stamp House in Kendal. At the moment, there are 40 dishes and drinks on the menu. Nestled in the heart of this stunning landscape, the Old Stamp House draws upon the bountiful offerings of our surroundings. The windswept Irish sea coast is a treasure trove of seasonal delights, where sea bass, crab, langoustine, lobster, and brown shrimp are sourced directly from the Solway to the north and the enchanting expanses of Morecambe Bay to the south. The coastal shores themselves unveil a vibrant tapestry of foraged herbs and flowers, enhancing the natural flavors of our dishes. As you journey inland, the wooded river valleys present us with exquisite trout and salmon, while pheasant and deer subtly remind us of the rich hunting traditions of the region. Our lakes brim with pike and charr, and the ancient woods and hedgerows yield a cornucopia of mushrooms, nuts, berries, and more, each ingredient telling its own story. This remarkable larder, shaped over millennia by the forces of nature and the careful stewardship of man, ignites the creativity of our dedicated team at the Old Stamp House. Our seasonal menus are a heartfelt tribute to the rich food heritage of the region, honoring both its people and the deep-seated cultural traditions that continue to inspire us. Join us as we celebrate this unique culinary journey, where every dish is a vibrant reflection of our beautiful surroundings and the rich flavors they offer.
