The Gadlys Arms, a beloved local pub, remains open despite rumors of closure, operating until Tuesday afternoons. Patrons celebrate its warm atmosphere and attentive owners while noting a few recent food inconsistencies. While some enjoy delightful dishes like lamb and sirloin steak, others have reported disappointments with items such as reheated roast potatoes and greasy gammon. However, the staff's friendly demeanor and commitment to customer satisfaction shine through, contributing to the pub's reputation for excellent service. With great prices and a welcoming ambiance, many vow to return, especially for the celebrated Sunday roast.
