Despite some negative aspects such as discrepancies in the menu, slow service, and the owner's dogs roaming around, the overall dining experience at this restaurant was a hit or miss. Some diners were disappointed with the basic dishes and felt that the pricing was a bit petty. However, others had a memorable evening, enjoying delicious meals and excellent service. The head chef, Gardinal Vincent, and the staff were praised for their professionalism and friendliness. The beautiful presentation and exceptional flavors of the dishes were a highlight, leaving diners wanting to return for more.
